Photography – we would like to be able use the images of young people that were taken during the Youth Races for publicity purposes. We will follow these guidelines for the use of photos or images of young people. Please note that web sites can be viewed throughout the world, not just in the UK, where UK law applies. Please read the following conditions for using these images:

1. We will not include details or full names (which means first name and surname) of any child in an image, on video, on our website, or in printed publications, without good reason. For example we may include the full name of a prize winner if we have their consent.
2. We will not include personal email or postal addresses, or telephone or fax numbers on video or on our website or in our printed publications,
3. If we use images of individual young people we will not use the name of that child in the accompanying text or photo caption, and;
4. If a young person is named in the text, we will not use a photo of that child to accompany the article. In specific circumstances, such as we wish to include a picture and full name of a competition winner, we will request written parental consent first.
5. We may use group images with general label such as Youth Race.
6. We will only use images of children who are suitably dressed, to reduce the risk of such images being used inappropriately.

Physical Contact – many sports by their nature require a degree of physical contact between adults and young people. Physical contact can be used appropriately to instruct, encourage, protect or comfort. Please sign below to agree to allow physical contact following the physical contact following the guidelines set out below:

Physical contact between adults and young people should only be used when the aim is to;

- Treat an injury
- Prevent an injury
- Safety reasons
